"—some of the fondest memories."

FOREWORD

As we the class of "62" reflect on these past four years at Weaver, we shall find many memorable events which we would like to cherish. We have been developing ourselves not only physically in sports and extra-curricular activities but also mentally in our studies. In comparison, these years are like a play in which the students as the players and the teachers as the directors have worked together to produce the best possible result.

What has been taught to us and what we have learned are yet to be used in our future life. We shall always strive for the worthy and high goals which have been set before us. And as we leave the portals of Weaver to set out into the world, we shall never forget the rewarding and inspiring experiences which have been ours. Therefore, we of the Portal Board hope to have captured some of the fondest memories, so that this book will serve as a reminder of our Weaver days and be the source of many happy reminiscences.

DEDICATION

MR. JOHN B. MCGILL

A cheerful smile always greeted students when they entered this teacher's room. With an appropriate joke for every situation which arose, he made his classes more enjoyable. By being somewhat stern in his manner, he instilled a strong sense of responsibility and self-discipline in us. By giving his students a fuller understanding of what democracy means, he taught us to become better citizens in later life. Just think how many Weaverites spent their afternoons learning the responsibilities of an expert driver! Even though this man left the portals of our school this year, he will always remain in the hearts of the class of "62." And so for his inspiration and his guidance, we dedicate to him this, the Portal of 1962.

MISS CATHERINE S. BAILEY

We shall always remember this teacher for her devotion, understanding, and interest in her students. She willingly spent many hours after school to give us additional information to enrich our appreciation of literature. Her sense of humor has made the tedious chore of studying English enjoyable! Not only were we aided in our studies by her knowledge, but we were also aided by her constant readiness to lend an ear and an open mind to solve our individual personal problems. No one will ever forget this teacher's warm personality as she greeted all. Because of the fine qualities which she has evidenced to us for these past four years, we dedicate to her, The Portal of 1962.

MR. WILLIAM H. KATZ

There is much we can say about this teacher who has won the respect and admiration of almost every Weaver student. Being tall, dark, and handsome, he is easily identified by his Ivy-League clothes. In his easy-going manner, he taught his students the fundamentals of mathematics. Never can it be said that fairness and justice were not evident because he treated all equally and justly. Many students were able to overcome their difficulties because of this teacher's commendable patience. Our class considers this man as one of us since he came here the same September, and now as we finish our stay, he is leaving Weaver to do graduate work. Therefore, to show our appreciation for his hard work and his guidance, we proudly dedicate to him The Portal of 1962.

There are few words which can express our gratitude to Mr. McGill, formerly of the History Department, Miss Bailey of the English Department, and Mr. Katz of the Mathematics Department, to whom we, the class of "62", dedicate our Portal.

MR. WILLIAM F. AITKEN

As the senior class of '62 walks through the halls of Weaver for the last time, there will be one walking with us for whom these corridors hold a multitude of memories, one to whom we look up with a deep respect, for his sincerity and frankness have made us all feel close to him. Mr. Aitken has given to our faculty and our student body an immeasurable amount of time, devotion, and friendship. He has taken an enthusiastic interest in every Weaver activity and dedicated himself to our goals tirelessly and unselfishly.

As we look back upon our four years in Weaver and realize how we have grown and what Weaver has given us, we can well appreciate how Mr. Aitken must feel upon leaving, but Mr. Aitken leaves a part of himself behind — a school whose name is respected, a feeling of happiness in the hearts of all with whom he has come in contact, and the fruits of a job well done.

Both of us — the class of '62 and Mr. Aitken — have successfully reached the end of the "Weaverville" road and see before us a maze of new paths to be tried. Before the class of '62 leaves the security of Weaver's walls, it wishes to thank Mr. Aitken sincerely for being a part of these years and to express its deep appreciation. We all wish him many happy years in retirement.

MR. EZRA MELROSE

The appointment of Mr. Melrose as acting principal was certainly a happy event in the happenings of this school year. A person with whom most of us have come in contact, he has shown compassion, interest, loyalty, and fairness and richly deserves this appointment.

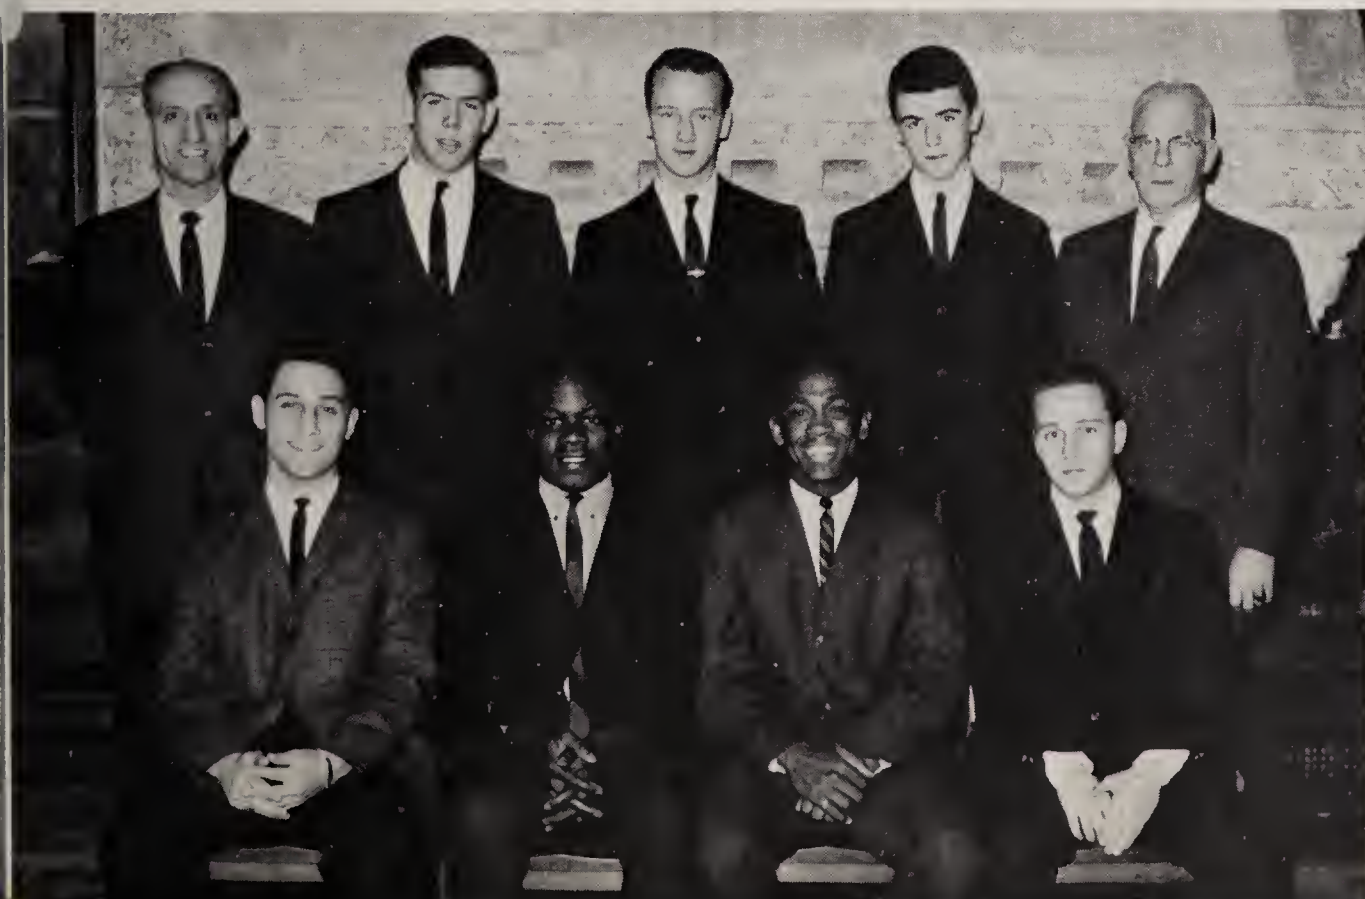

When the 2:11 bell rang, Mr. Melrose perhaps desired to end his school day, the same as we did, yet his wish could not be fulfilled so easily as ours. In addition to his own work, he undertook the responsibility of straightening out the varied crises which bothered us — at least they seemed most important to us. One of our most loyal "Boosters," Mr. Melrose was present at the numerous sports events in which Weaver participated or was extending a firm handshake in the receiving line at a school dance or social function.

In the years ahead, as we remember these gay and happy days, Mr. Melrose will be a dominant figure in our fond memories of W.H.S. because he has made himself a part of us as he worked for us and helped to create and uphold Weaver's high standards. Although we have not always shown our gratitude, sometimes taking his kindnesses for granted, he continued his labors in our behalf.

We shall always remember you, Mr. Melrose, and wish you outstanding success in your new responsibilities.

MR. NICHOLAS C. CORACCI

Our acting vice-principal is a man on whom all students look as a friend. Known as the "voice of Weaver," Mr. Coracci started everybody's day off on the right foot with his jovial "good morning" over the P. A. system. His amiable smile, his sincerity, and his friendliness have made Mr. Coracci a person to whom all students feel they can turn without hesitation.

We as citizens of the W.H.S. student body cannot forget all the little extras Mr. Coracci has undertaken for us, nor will we forget his good influence and vibrant personality. He has helped to mold each person with whom he has come in contact, and as we pass from our classrooms for the last time, in our hearts we will be thankful to Mr. Coracci and wish him the best of everything in the years to come.

She has maintained a constant interest in all school activities, clubs, and social affairs . . . The Student Council and The Girls' League have worked with her and have appreciated the always-welcome, helping hand she has offered . . . IDEAL BOY & GIRL

"Why don't we have honors history classes?" queried many juniors. "Someone does well in American History and deserves as much credit as someone who does well in math," is a girl, expressing her opinion. "Quality points to assure them," is another student's protest. "History as a subject can be taught in the college level, history courses deserve at least an honors rating."

A sophomore girl suggested classes at all levels in all subjects. "The more you have higher classes in a subject, you're showing favoritism. You don't give equal credit to all courses. Besides this, it discourages students from following their interests, when those subjects have been given sufficient 'quality' points."

Those who claimed fault with the system who felt they had been the loudest. "I don't want to be a subject," said one of the loudest. "I want to be a winner."

FOOTBALL

Weaver's football record (4-4-1) at first glance might indicate a mediocre season. However, considering that the squad was usually out-weighted and always out-manned, the record takes on greater significance. The "Green Machine" thoroughly trounced Hall and Pulaski, and eked out hard-earned victories over strong New London and Bulkeley elevens. Fitch proved to be the only team to completely outclass the Beavers. The remaining three losses to Norwich, Hartford, and New Britain were by the average score of three points!!! "Lady Luck" turned a deaf ear to the Weaver pleas.

The offense was built around the "Golden Arm" of All-State quarterback John Lee, who passed for twelve touchdowns, and the running of O'Cell Blocker, who added 10 more on the ground. Jackson, Halloway, and Blocker were the favorite targets of the Lee "bullets." The light, fast, and stubborn defensive unit, led by Captain Bob Hilton, allowed a stingy twelve points average to its opponents. Delaney, Wimbish, and Countryman were other solid defenders. Mitchell, winner of the Connecticut trophy as M.V.P. of the Hartford High game, Butler, and Reggie Lee were fine two-way performers for the "Green."

Although the "Battling Beavers" were at times out-pointed, they were never out-hustled!

CROSS-COUNTRY

The Weaver Harriers, coached by Colin Wilson, compiled a fine 7-1 record for the 1961 year. Weaver, led by Captain Jim Hardeman and Ed Gillim, captured sixth place in the New England Interscholastic Cross-Country Championship meet, so that Connecticut teams took first place in this New England event. The powerful Weaver squad can look forward to another successful year behind such veterans as Richard Dzis, John Johns, Larry Bailey, Ronald Mink, Herman Googe, and Reginald Washington. Senior members of this year's team were Captain Jim Hardemen, Ed Gillim, Booker Holton, and John Smiley.

Jim Hardeman and Ed Gillim were chosen as members of an all CDC Cross-Country team.

BASKETBALL TEAM

BASKETBALL

Under the leadership of Coach Scelza, the Weaver basketball team of 1961-62 ended the season with an 11-7 won and lost record. With this standing, the Beavers qualified for the play-off round of the CIAC tournament.

After obtaining a 3-1 record, the Beavers sustained two vital blows at the hands of state powers, Hillhouse and Norwich. On their next outing the "Fighting Five" were up-ended by a strong Bulkeley team 43-41. In a losing cause, Co-Captain John Lee netted 22 points.

On January 26, a fast-breaking Hartford High quintet handed Weaver another setback by the score of 67-62 with Co-Captain Bob Ricks leading the Weaver hoopsters with 19 points.

With four games remaining, the North Enders needed three victories to qualify for the CIAC tournament. In a return match with Bulkeley, the Beavers' rally fell short, and the Green came out on the losing end.

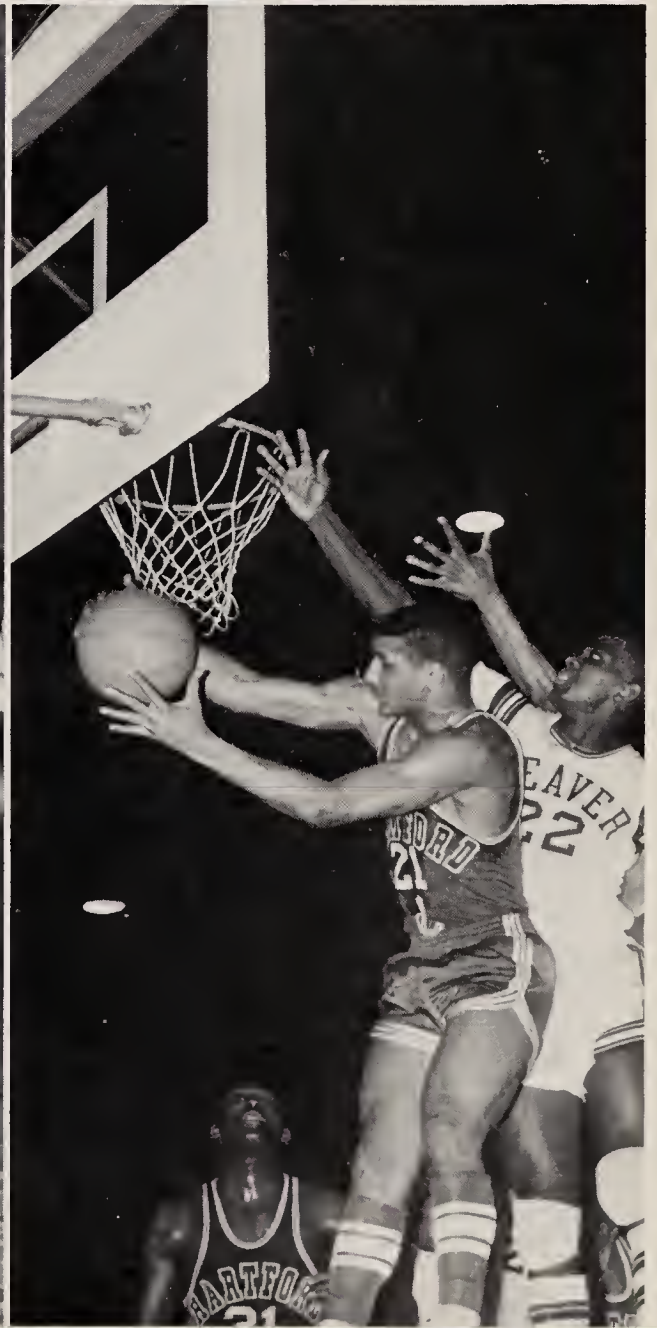

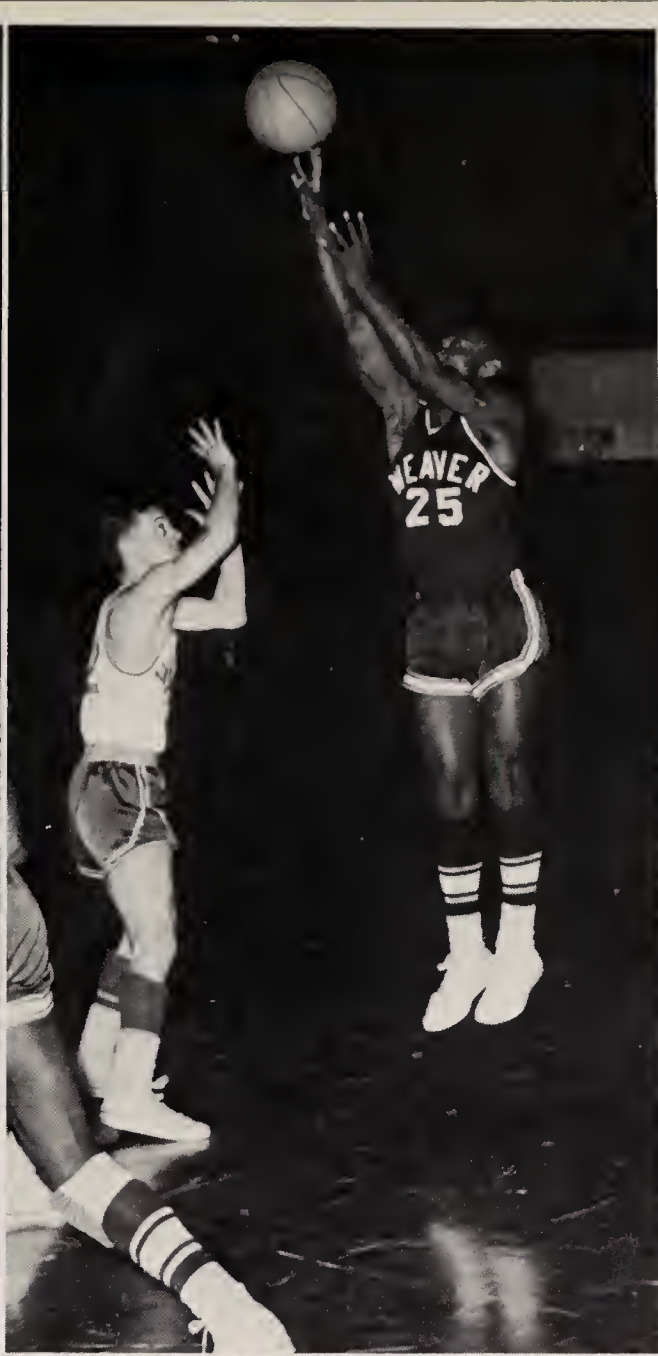

While shooting a strong 50% throughout the first half, Weaver upset Hartford in the return duel by a score of 66-55 to strengthen their hopes for a chance at the state title. John Lee chipped in 22 points, followed by Gene Nelson with 16.

To gain a play-off spot in the tournament, Weaver needed a victory over New London in the final game of the campaign. Playing under great pressure in the first half, the Green and White came up with a fine team effort in the second half to ward off a late rally and advance to the play-off in the CIAC tournament. John Lee hit for 17, followed by Nelson with 12.

Next the Beavers traveled to Middletown for a play-off contest with Warren Harding of Bridgeport. With Lee, Ricks, and Timmons controlling the boards, Weaver held the lead for three periods. Several bad breaks bothered the Beavers throughout the final period, and Harding turned the tide by a score of 54-53. Gone were our hopes for another state crown and a trip to Boston!

Our city rivals played the final at Storrs with Hartford beating Bulkeley, 67-64!

Freshman Year

We still have vivid memories of "That First Day" at Weaver. There we were, just a bunch of greenhorns, unaware of what "dangers" lay ahead — heavy swinging doors, stampedes to the lunchroom, and "cipher-happy" teachers!

The first activity for freshmen girls was the annual "Get-Acquainted Party" given by the Girls' League.

Joining the ranks on the field were Jane Klein, Carole Lasker, Miriam Feltman, and Margaret Marley, our new baton twirlers.

With the Turkey Day game came our first real sorrow — our defeat by Hartford High, 12-6. But we erased our frowns, and put our confidence in the hands of our present "all-time greats" — John Lee, Jim Mitchell, Jim Butler, Bob Hilton, Eddie Jackson, and "Pop" Blocker.

Along with other activities came the Girls' League Fashion Show. Cheryl Herman, Sheila Wilkomer, and Carole Lasker took part in the event.

As our freshman year came to an end, we recalled all the fun we had had and looked forward with anticipation to all the fun we would have in our sophomore year.

Sophomore Year

The sophomore year found us more confident and better informed about the customs and goings-on of our new "home." We were again in the midst of many changes: one was the change from six to four marking periods. In between the "big days" came those little "notes of joy" called warning notices!

We hadn't been settled long before each day (almost!) found us rushing from the building as a result of bomb scares which always seemed to come at the "right" time.

What a Thanksgiving! For the first time of our Weaver days, we saw our Beavers roll over H.P.H.S., 22-0!

Our basketball team started off "red hot" as it made its way to the State Tournament in New Haven, only to be knocked out in the quarter-finals by Wilbur Cross.

Then came Weaver Nite! It was one of the best we had seen — especially since so many sophomores were in it.

Our last big treat was the news that we would be able to get our class ring in our junior year. So — with orders in for class rings — we left with the knowledge that there were "only two more years to go!!"

Junior Year

Still yawning, with eyes half-opened, we stumbled up the stairs to meet the new 8:15 deadline. On top of this, we were "greeted?" by the puzzling, rotating schedules. With the help of these schedules, we were found everywhere except where we should have been!

It's hard to believe, but for the first time in twenty years, we had a winning baseball season, copping the City Series Crown.

Recipient of the Wise Travel Scholarship for the sixth consecutive year was a Weaverite, Diane Goldberg. Runners-up were Ellen Rosen, Bill Muszynski, Barry Rosen, and Bernie Lapp.

Spring brought many enjoyable events, one of which was the Junior Tea. Next came our Junior Prom "Harbor Lights," the truly gala event of our Junior Year. Ellen Landerman was crowned Queen, and Regina Sears, Janese Chalk, Leona Ward, Sheila Wilkomer, Kerien Kelly, and Felicia Borsari were elected to the Royal Court.

Our final activity was the election of officers to head our Senior year, which now loomed bright in the not-too-distant future.

Senior Year

"We finally made it!" That was our cry as we returned to Weaver for our "greatest" year. Among the many novelties to greet us were the new P. A. system, I. B. M. machines, quality points, and lockers!

After the first few weeks of confusion, we got back into the swing of things with Walter Hodges leading the band, and Connie Alexis, the Girls' League.

Soon, after petitions were signed and campaigns completed, we had three senior boys elected to the J. C. C. — Walter Hodges, Jim Mitchell, and John Lee.

Before we knew it, the football season was in full swing. Along with Ellen Landerman, captain of the cheerleading squad, and Bob Hilton, captain of the football team, we all had a fairly successful campaign although Turkey did not taste too good this year again!

Despite the fine play of John "Duck" Lee, Bobby "Top Cat" Ricks, Wade "Cousy" Timmons, O'Cell "Pop" Blocker, Eugene "Chubby" Nelson, John "Boye" Ward, Eric "Rabbit" Anderson, and Bennie "Cookie" Billie, our disappointing basketball season ended with a defeat at the hands of Warren Harding in the elimination game — by one point!

Weaver Nite once again returned to the delight of the student body. Many a morning found "eager Beavers", Ellen Landerman, Judy La Flamme, Gail Goldberg, Jacqui Wayne, Jane Klein, and Susan Weinberg, our Dancing Dolls of 1962, practicing in the gym.

In our last semester we experienced one regret, the departure of our beloved Mr. Aitken. He had made our years at Weaver memorable and enjoyable. We shall always remember him in connection with our Weaver days.

With Mr. Aitken's retirement, our popular Vice-Principal Mr. Melrose took over as Acting Principal. The genial Mr. Coracci, who had sold us so many tickets to the various games and other school activities and whose cheerful voice we had heard all year giving the daily announcements, became Acting Vice-Principal. Hence our school year saw the end of one regime and the auspicious beginning of a new one. As we graduate, we shall always "wish Weaver well" and hope that the new leaders will continue the "great Weaver tradition" which has become a part of each of us.

Roll Call

It seems like only yesterday when we were freshmen here.
Remember all our hopes and dreams
in that dawning year.

Gathering knowledge new to us and working right along, it always was a challenge which made our spirits strong.

Activities and dances and all the fun we shared can never be forgotten by any of us here.

The years went by so rapidly
we hardly had a chance to capture all the memories we would have liked perhaps.

Our senior year has finally come,
the year we've been awaiting,
The year in which we take our leave is climaxed by graduating.

Now the time has come when we must part and each go his separate way, but Weaver we'll remember, deep in our hearts to stay.
